

Template

Correction to [Article Title]

[Citation to article being corrected]

[Description of error]

We apologize for this error.

Example

Correction can be replaced by Erratum or Corrigendum, depending on the Display Name used by the journal

Correction to “Fox and dog jumping report”

Jones A, Smith B. Fox and dog jumping report. J. Research. 2003;1:1–10.

In paragraph 3 of the “Materials and Methods” section, the text “The quick blue fox jumps over the lazy cat.” was incorrect. This should have read: “The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog.”

We apologize for this error.

No authors

Include clear information as to what the error was and what the correction is (eg, just inserting a new figure without explaining briefly what was wrong with the old one is unacceptable)

No assignment of blame. Include a non-specific apology