

Make your article open access with Statewide California Electronic Library Consortium

Open access payments made easy with your institution or funder

Option 1: Hybrid open access

STEP 1

Once your article is accepted, register or log in to Wiley Author Services at www.wileyauthors.com.^ Under My Articles, look for your article and click Manage Article. Look for a message from your institution or funder and click Select Open Access.

Review Open Access eligibility

Open Access Discount Available

Wiley has an agreement with Santa Clara University to cover open access charges for affiliated authors. Your institution will cover the costs in full if you do not have available grant funding to pay the APC.

- If you have grant funding to pay the APC, continue in Author Services by clicking "Yes, make my article open access."
- If you do not have grant funding to pay the APC, complete the SCELC Open Access Coverage Form to receive full coverage.

Article publication charge:

Institutional discount applied
USD	$1500 $275
GBP	£1141 £138.10
EUR	€1267 €118.03

Discounts may be available. Final charge and currency based on billing address.

STEP 2

CONFIRM YOUR FUNDER(S)

You may be asked to add or confirm the funder(s) you entered during submission. Select your funder from the dropdown list or click Add Funder and start typing to search. You may also tick "I did not receive funding for this article." Then, enter any grant details.

Please confirm your funders for this article

Correctly declaring your funders helps us ensure that you're compliant with any funder mandates and determines if you're eligible for open access funding.

This journal offers a number of license options. By signing, you confirm that you are able to grant the necessary permissions for this article and its supplementary materials. These permissions include your funder policy restrictions. You are expected to meet your funder's policies, for example if the funder is a member of Coalition S.

STEP 3

CONFIRM YOUR AFFILIATION(S)

You may be asked to add or confirm the affiliation(s) you entered during submission.

If you entered an eligible institution, you will see an Open Access Discount message:

Open Access Discount

This institution has an agreement with Wiley and the article is eligible for open access at a discounted APC.

Please specify your affiliations for this article

Please add your primary affiliation with the institution where the research for this article was conducted.

Correctly declaring your affiliations helps us determine if your institution can cover your open access Article Publication Charge (APC). This will not affect any information in the published article.

- Do not include any of your co-authors' affiliations
- When searching for your affiliation, select your institution only; do not include a department, office, or other subdivision (e.g., enter "University of Oxford" and not "University of Oxford Department of Economics")

Help with affiliations

- What does it mean if my institution is "not verified"?
- What if my department is not listed?
- What if my organization is not listed?
- Should I list the affiliations of my coauthors?
- What if I changed or moved organizations?
- What if my institution is listed, but its name or location is

STEP 4

SELECT OPEN ACCESS

Review the discount and eligibility details:

Do you want to make your article open access?

Open Access Discount Available

Wiley has an agreement with Santa Clara University to cover open access charges for affiliated authors. Your institution will cover the costs in full if you do not have available grant funding to pay the APC.

- If you have grant funding to pay the APC, continue in Author Services by clicking "Yes, make my article open access."
- If you do not have grant funding to pay the APC, complete the SCELC Open Access Coverage Form to receive full coverage.

This journal offers an option to make your article open access. Some funders and institutions require open access. Check with your funder and/or institution to find out their open access policies, or visit our Author Compliance Tool to learn more.

Option 2: Fully open access journal

STEP 1

Visit www.wileyopenresearch.com/browsejournals and choose one of Wiley's fully open access journals.

STEP 2

During submission*, you will be asked to confirm your institutional affiliations to accompany your manuscript. This information will also be used to determine your eligibility for funding through your institution.

Authors

Selected Authors Edit

If your APC will be paid by a research funding body, follow the instructions on submission to find and enter their account code.

Other Discount

If you have received another type of discount code, such as a promotional discount code via e-mail or brochure, please enter it below:

Wiley Open Access Accounts

If the Corresponding Author's institution, funder, or society has a Wiley Open Access Account (WOAA), all or part of the APC might be covered. Eligibility is based on the submission date and the organization having an active account/partnership arrangement when the article is ready to be published.

- For institutional WOAA's, the manuscript will be automatically sent to the institution's Open Access dashboard for APC funding approval.
- For funder WOAA's, please obtain your funder's Account Code and enter it into the Other Discount field above.
- For society WOAA's, the organizations have asked Wiley to instruct authors to obtain an Account Code directly from them. Once obtained, enter the code in the Other Discount field above.

STEP 3

Authors will receive an email outlining their expected article publication charge (APC). If additional funding is needed, a link will be provided to request this.

Thank you for your recent submission to Journal of Diabetes Investigation, an open access journal that levies article publication charges; therefore, I am writing to confirm the article publication charge based on the information you supplied during submission of the following manuscript.

Article Title: CDLSCELC Workflow meta-data update

Manuscript ID: JDI-GA-2024-0161

If your manuscript is accepted for publication in Journal of Diabetes Investigation, you will be asked to pay the following:

Article Publication Charge: $1,990.00

Highest Available Discount: $1,298.50

Total Payable: $691.50

*Upon invoicing, tax will be applied where applicable. If you are a tax-exempt individual or institution, you will be asked to provide your relevant tax information at that time. Please see <http://www.wileyopenaccess.com/details/content/1275d279e/Authors.html> for more information on publication charges and applicable taxes. You may provide an alternative billing address at the time of payment if an institution or another individual is paying the publication charge for your manuscript.

Please note your institutional affiliation has entitled you to a 15% discount on your open access article processing charge (APC), plus an additional $1000 subvention paid for by the UC Libraries. This has already been applied to the total payable above. If you do not have research funds to contribute to the remaining payable APC, please complete the CDL Open Access Coverage Form to receive full coverage.

If you have questions about the status of your manuscript, please contact the Editorial Office at jdi@wiley.com

Thank you for submitting your manuscript to Journal of Diabetes Investigation.

Sincerely,

Wiley Open Access
