

THE GREEN ROAD TO COMPLIANCE

Steps to navigate the Open Access journey with Wiley

START

Is your article based on research that has been wholly or partially funded?

Ensure that you cite funding in the acknowledgements section of your manuscript.

This is sent by Wiley's Author Licensing Service or by the journal's editorial office.

Sign and submit the copyright license agreement.

Submit manuscript via journal's submission system. If prompted, answer any funding questions.

Your copyright license will include instructions on how to self-archive.

The final version of your article is published online on Wiley Online Library.

FINISH

The author has responsibility of self-archiving the manuscript after the designated embargo period.
